

K-Love is an important source of information and encouraging music for my community. The impact of K-Love would be greatly decreased, were an LPFM broadcaster to provide other programming. That is one of the main goals of the radio station, to make an impact, and to encourage those who listen. The services that K-Love provides changes lives every day. K-Love is truly a valuable part of my community.